Student Name: _____ Student ID Number: _____

There are certain “special circumstances” which may affect a student’s financial aid eligibility that do not fall under the normal categories provided on the 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If your situation meets any of the conditions below, provide a written statement explaining your “special circumstances”.

Along with this request, you will be required to provide supporting documentation to prove your special circumstance is valid. Your request for consideration of special circumstances and supporting documentation will be reviewed and you will be notified of what further action, if any, to take.

Situations Affecting Revisions to Original Application

- ❖ Loss of family income/benefits for 2021. For example, loss of job or benefits. Job loss is defined as the involuntary separation from permanent employment.
- ❖ Adjustment for 2021 medical and/or dental expenses paid by the parent or student (not reimbursed by insurance).
- ❖ Parent or Student who is widowed/divorced since the 2021 US Income Tax Return was filed.

Required Information

- Completed request for Consideration of Special Circumstances
- Typed explanation of specific circumstances affecting your application status
- Supporting documentation including:
  - 2021 U. S. Income Tax Return for student and/or parent
  - W-2 Forms from 2021 for student and/or parent

Other possible documentation, appropriate to your situation:

Proof of Separation from Employment
Divorce Decree
Death Certificate
Physician Statement
Workman’s Compensation Benefits Detail
Year-to-date Paycheck Stubs and/or Unemployment Statement

Complete this section ONLY if this application is a result of job loss...

Before an adjustment can be made to your status, you must provide complete information regarding your estimates of the change in financial situation for you or your spouse (or your parents, if you are a dependent student) for 2023. Please provide the best possible estimates for the period January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023. Additional documentation may be required.
