

Dependent Verification Worksheet 2011-2012

The U.S. Department of Education (DOE) has selected your application for a process called “verification”. In this process, the school will compare information from your FAFSA with signed copies of you/your parents’ 2010 Federal Tax Returns, W-2s and other financial documents. The law says we have a right to ask you for this information before awarding any Financial Aid. If there are differences between the information on your FAFSA and the financial documents, corrections will be made electronically by the Financial Aid Office.
