Course Policies:

1. No food, drinks or use of tobacco products in class.
2. Cellphones, headphones, and any other electronic devices must be turned off while in class.
3. Do not bring children to class.
4. I expect all assignments to be written in complete sentences and with correct grammar. Work that does not reflect these expectations will be returned to the student for correction.
5. Students are expected to be present at every class as well as being on time.
6. If you do not understand an assignment, ask the instructor during or after class for clarification. There are no dumb questions.
7. Cheating will not be tolerated in any form. Plagiarism and cheating have no place in a community of scholars. Have the confidence in yourself to give your original best.
8. If assignments are late, points will be taken off each day that it is late.
9. Students that miss a test will take it upon returning to class.
10. Attendance Policy- Attendance and participation are critical for completion of this course. This course has limited time in the classroom and that time has to be utilized effectively. Absences are strongly discouraged unless in the event of a true emergency or illness.
11. The instructor must be notified in the event of an absence.
12. If a student is tardy to class or departs early three times, it will be equal to one absence. Each absence beyond one will result in having to make up the hours to equal the 120 required for the CDA.
13. No use of perfume/ scented products in class (examples: perfume, lotion, body spray)
14. If you wish to drop a course, the student is responsible for initiating and completing the drop process with LIT plus is responsible for contacting and speaking with your T.E.A.C.H. representative. If you stop coming to class and fail to drop the course, you will earn an “F” in the course.

Disabilities Statement:

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1992 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 are federal anti-discrimination statutes that provide comprehensive civil rights for persons with disabilities. Among other things, these statutes require that all students with documented disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodations for their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Special Populations Coordinator at (409) 880-1737 or visit the office in Student Services, Cecil Beeson Building. You may also visit the online resource at http://www.lit.edu/depts/stuserv/special/defaults.aspx.
Student Code of Conduct Statement:
It is the responsibility of all registered Lamar Institute of Technology students to access, read, understand and abide by all published policies, regulations, and procedures listed in the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook. The LIT Catalog and Student Handbook may be accessed at www.lit.edu or obtained in print upon request at the Student Services Office. Please note that the online version of the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook supersedes all other versions of the same document.
