COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is an exploration of the history, methods, genres, and notable filmmakers in the cinematic arts, and the ways in which they express the values of cultures and human experience.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to
• Identify major genres within the cinematic arts
• Recognize the styles of major filmmakers within those genres
• Evaluate the impact of society on the history of film
• Become an active viewer of films and apply lessons within to one’s everyday life

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND MATERIALS
None

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Regular attendance is crucial to your success in this course, and tardiness or early departure may result in a recorded absence. Frequent absences may result in zeroes for assignments and point deductions for class participation. Missing one quarter or more of all scheduled classes will result in an F. Absences due to medical reasons with proper documentation will not be counted against you, and absences for religious reasons will be respected as well. In both cases, medical and religious, prior notification is needed.

DROP POLICY
If you wish to drop a course, you are responsible for initiating and completing the drop process by the specified drop date as listed on the Academic Calendar. If you stop coming to class and fail to drop the course, you will earn an “F” in the course.

STUDENT EXPECTED TIME REQUIREMENT
For every hour in class (or unit of credit), students should expect to spend at least two to three hours per week studying and completing assignments. For a 3-credit-hour class, students should prepare to allocate approximately six to nine hours per week outside of class in a 16-week session OR approximately twelve to eighteen hours in an 8-week session. Online/Hybrid students should expect to spend at least as much time in this course as in the traditional, face-to-face class.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
Students found to be committing academic dishonesty (cheating, plagiarism, or collusion) may receive disciplinary action. Students need to familiarize themselves with the institution’s Academic Dishonesty Policy available in the Student Catalog & Handbook at http://catalog.lit.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=80#academic-dishonesty.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS
The latest technical requirements, including hardware, compatible browsers, operating systems, etc. can be online at https://lit.edu/online-learning/online-learning-minimum-computer-requirements. A functional broadband internet connection, such as DSL, cable, or WiFi is necessary to maximize the use of online technology and resources.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT
The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 are federal anti-discrimination statutes that provide comprehensive civil rights for persons with disabilities. LIT provides reasonable accommodations as defined in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, to students with a diagnosed disability. The Special Populations Office is located in the Eagles’ Nest Room 129 and helps foster a supportive and inclusive educational environment by maintaining partnerships with faculty and staff, as well as promoting awareness among all members of the Lamar Institute of Technology community. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Special Populations Coordinator at (409)-951-5708 or email specialpopulations@lit.edu. You may also visit the online resource at Special Populations - Lamar Institute of Technology (lit.edu).

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT STATEMENT
It is the responsibility of all registered Lamar Institute of Technology students to access, read, understand and abide by all published policies, regulations, and procedures listed in the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook. The LIT Catalog and Student Handbook may be accessed at www.lit.edu. Please note that the online version of the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook supersedes all other versions of the same document.

STARFISH
LIT utilizes an early alert system called Starfish. Throughout the semester, you may receive emails from Starfish regarding your course grades, attendance, or academic performance. Faculty members record student attendance, raise flags and kudos to express concern or give praise, and you can make an appointment with faculty and staff all through the Starfish home page. You can also login to Blackboard or MyLIT and click on the Starfish link to view academic alerts and detailed information. It is the responsibility of the student to pay attention to these emails and information in Starfish and consider taking the recommended actions. Starfish is used to help you be a successful student at LIT.

CONTACT PROCEDURES
When emailing your professor, include your name, course section number, and a detailed message so that questions and concerns may be addressed properly. Be specific and detailed, and make no assumptions. Please be respectful and informative in all correspondence. The more information you provide, the more quickly your issues can be resolved. Please allow up to two business days for a response.

CLASSROOM CONDUCT
Working with your instructor and engaging with your peers is crucial to your success in this course. Please treat your professor and one another with the utmost respect and adherence afforded a professional.

ECHS/DUAL CREDIT COURSE CONDUCT
For Dual Credit students only – When working in an ECHS Dual Credit course, treat your in-class facilitator with respect. This individual is an equal partner of your professor, and working with them is critical to your success. Your facilitator and your professor are in regular contact regarding your work, classroom conduct, and attendance. All final decisions in every matter though will be rendered by your professor and no one else.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION AND LATE WORK POLICY
Unless otherwise specified, each assignment must be uploaded to the appropriate Blackboard link by 11:59 pm on the due date. Assignments turned in after the due date will be considered late and may not be accepted. If such assignments are accepted, it will be solely at the instructor’s discretion and with an automatic point reduction penalty. All assignments must be submitted to Blackboard for grading and work submitted in any other fashion, including email, will not be opened, viewed, or otherwise accepted for grading. Be respectful of your instructor’s time and turn in all assignments by or before the appropriate due date. Plagiarized assignments will result in an automatic zero, no redos allowed. Please allow up to one week for assignments to be graded.
