Nothing herein shall be construed to be an acceptance of any terms of Contractor. If any provision in the Contract and/or Purchase Order conflicts with these Terms and Conditions the provision contained in these Terms and Conditions shall govern and control.

MODIFICATION: No modification of the Contract shall be effective without LIT’s prior written consent. No course of prior dealings, no usage of the trade and no course of performance shall be used to modify, supplement or explain any terms used in the Contract. LIT will not be bound by any oral statement, verbal agreement, or other representation contrary to the written specifications, terms, and conditions of the Contract.

CANCELLATION: LIT shall have the right to cancel all or any part of the Contract if Contractor breaches any of the terms, conditions, or requirements hereof, or if the Contractor closes its business operations, becomes insolvent or is adjudged bankrupt. Such right of cancellation is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedies which LIT may have at law or in equity.

DEFAULT AND TERMINATION: LIT may terminate the Contract without cause at any time upon thirty (30) days advance written notice to Contractor, in which event Contractor will be entitled to payment of an amount that will compensate Contractor for any goods accepted or services satisfactorily performed in accordance with the Contract from the time of the last payment date to the termination date; provided, that, Contractor has delivered or performed all such goods or services to LIT for which payment is made. Notwithstanding any provision in the Contract to the contrary, LIT will not be required to pay or reimburse Contractor for any goods delivered, services performed, or expenses incurred by Contractor after the date of the termination notice.

(a) In the event of a material failure by a party to the Contract to perform in accordance with the terms of the Contract (a “default”), the other party may terminate the Contract upon thirty days’ advance written notice of termination setting forth the nature of the material failure. Termination will not be effective if the material failure is, in LIT’s sole discretion, fully cured prior to the end of the thirty-day period.

(b) If Contractor fails to cure any default within fifteen days of receiving written notice of the default, LIT will be entitled (but not obligated) to cure the default and will have the right to offset against all amounts due to Contractor under the Contract, including but not limited to any and all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with LIT’s curative actions.

(c) Termination will not relieve Contractor or any of its employees, subcontractors, or agents from liability for any default or breach under the Contract, or any other act or omission of Contractor.

(d) If LIT will make pre-payments to Contractor under the Contract, Contractor will, within thirty days of termination of the Contract, reimburse LIT all fees paid by LIT to Contractor that were (i) not earned by Contractor prior to termination, or (ii) for goods or services that LIT did not receive from Contractor prior to termination.

DELIVERY & SHIPPING: All packages and packing lists must reference LIT’s Purchase Order Number. Failure to do so may result in the shipment being rejected and/or a delay in payment. Time is of the essence and if delivery of conforming goods or performance of services is not completed by the time(s) promised, LIT reserves the right, in addition to its other rights and remedies, to cancel the Contract, to reject non-conforming goods or services in whole or in part upon notice to Contractor, and/or purchase substitute goods or services elsewhere and charge Contractor with any losses incurred. If a delay in promised delivery is foreseen, Contractor shall give written notice to LIT, and the delivery date may be extended in LIT’s sole discretion.

work that is to be paid for under the Contract. The designated Project Manager will decide all questions that may arise regarding the fulfillment of the Contract by Contractor, and the designated Project Manager’s determination and decision thereon will be final.
